May is for Mothers

Mother's Day 2026 is on Sunday, May 10, in the United States and many other countries, always celebrated on the second Sunday in May. It is a holiday honoring motherhood, maternal bonds, and the influence of mothers in society, commonly celebrated with flowers, cards, family dinners, and brunch. Founded by Anna Jarvis in 1908 in the U.S. to honor her mother, it became an official U.S. holiday in 1914. Modern celebrations are often expanded to honor grandmothers, aunts, and anyone who has provided maternal care. While now commercialized, it was originally meant for grassroots action, peace, and community action to improve health. White carnations are historically linked to the day.

MAY FACTS

May is likely named after the Roman goddess Maia, who oversaw the growth of plants. Alternatively, the name might have come from the Latin maiores, meaning elders.

- May 1 is May Day. Mark the return of spring by bringing in branches of forsythia, lilacs, or other flowering shrubs from your region. May Day is also “Lei Day” in Hawaii. Leis are garlands or wreaths that are often made with native Hawaiian flowers, such as plumeria. Nowadays, they are given as a symbol of greeting, farewell, affection, celebration, or honor, in the spirit of aloha.
- May 5 is Cinco de Mayo (“The Fifth of May”). This day celebrates the victory of the Mexican army over the French army at the Battle of Puebla in 1862. Discover Mexican-American recipes and ways to celebrate Cinco de Mayo!
- May 10 is Mother’s Day—don’t forget! Do you have something planned to show appreciation for your mother? Learn about the history of Mother’s Day.
- May 16 is Armed Forces Day, which honors those who serve in all branches of the United States military.
- May 18 is Victoria Day in Canada. This holiday celebrates the birthday of Queen Victoria, who was born on May 24, 1819. The holiday is observed on the penultimate Monday in May.
- May 22 is National Maritime Day. Created in commemoration of the first transoceanic voyage via steamboat (completed by the U.S.S. Savannah in 1819), this holiday recognizes the efforts of the U.S. merchant marine during both war and peace.
- May 25 is Memorial Day—a poignant reminder of the tenacity of life. It’s tradition to raise the flag on this day; know how to fly your American flag properly.
